FOREWORD

This bibliography includes materials for English as a second language published after 1960 and available at the University of Hawaii Libraries.

Part I lists general works on methodology, testing, preparation and analysis of materials, and works for teacher training. Part II includes materials which concentrate on specific geographical areas. Part III covers textbooks, and Part IV lists miscellaneous selected titles relevant to the field.

Not included are reference sources such as guides to the literature, encyclopedias, bibliographies, printed library catalogues, dictionaries, indexing and abstracting services, current awareness services, and serial publications. These will be found in an earlier publication; Selected Reference Sources for ESL Students (compiled in January 1971).

Additional titles in the collection of the University of Hawaii Libraries can be located through relevant subject headings in the card catalog.
